

Award-winning artist and filmmaker Barbara Hammer and the Hudson Valley community will collaborate on 'A Place Called Hope' at CHRCH Project Space in August 2015.

Will you help us make this unique collaboration possible?

There are a number of ways to contribute...

WHO: CHRCH Project Space will bring together the Hudson Valley Community with award-winning artist and filmmaker Barbara Hammer.

WHAT: The idea is for select artists from our area to manipulate snippets from Barbara Hammer's extensive film archive to create a new work of art that will emerge in CHRCH Project Space for all to engage.

WHEN: August 2015 is when this residency will culminate in a multi-media show. A specific date for the event will be scheduled by the end of July 2015.

HOW: In order to make this collaboration a reality, we are crowdfunding up to $5,000 for equipment, expertise, printing resources, and installation materials. We are asking you to help by doing one or more of the following:

1. Watch the video and share our story via Facebook, Twitter, or your social network of choice.
2. Donate to help us reach our goal of $5,000 by visiting www.chrchprojectspace.org.
3. Participate in the event in August.

WHERE: CHRCH Project Space in Cottekill, NY.

WHY: We are honored as a community to collaborate with Barbara Hammer to produce a new piece using raw footage from her comprehensive filmography. CHRCH Project Space has co-created a variety of interactive experiences in partnership with Women's Studio Workshop and SUNY Ulster Arts. At CHRCH, we are not just providing space for artists, but a unique experience of art for our community. An opportunity to interface and engage with artists who present intelligent and approachable works you don't often find in a gallery setting.
